

Hello!

I am looking for a qualified, English speaking freelancer(s) who are able to (describe your job briefly here).

For the following, write 1-2 sentences for each:

- Include information about what specifically the job requires.
- State the deadline to complete the project
- State exactly what you want your deliverables to be
- Describe yourself or your business (Briefly)

In order to perform this job you will need the following skills:
(Replace these filler requirements with your own specifics)

- Excellent written English - No exceptions! You must be able to understand what you are writing on the page.
- If you have photo editing experience please include that in your cover letter (Specifically: Photoshop, Adobe Lightroom, Aperture).
- MUST be familiar with Wordpress/WooCommerce
- Ability to understand and work with HTML and CSS

If you think you are qualified for this position, please send me a message with the phrase: "I'm ready to begin this project!" at the beginning of your message so I know you have read the entire job description.

Thanks, I look forward to working with you!

Optional but recommended:

Offer certain incentives for the freelancer to apply to project, such as a possibility of future contracts, or bonus amount if a certain task is completed in addition.

Additionally, offer an example of a similar piece of work that you believe is of high quality to show the job applicant what you are looking for.
